

Rebuilding Together Minnesota Photography/Video Release

I agree as follows:

1. I authorize Rebuilding Together Minnesota (RTMN), a Minnesota-based nonprofit, its affiliates, successors, assigns, agents and representatives to photograph, record and use my appearance, likeness, image, portrait, name, performance and any statements, remarks and/or sounds made by me (“Photographs/Video Recordings”).
2. RTMN may reproduce, modify, publish, distribute, transmit, display, license or otherwise use the Photographs/Video Recordings in whole or in part in any and all forms of media (whether now known or developed after this Release), including without any limitation or restrictions in advertising, collateral materials, Internet and social media.
3. I understand that I have no rights or claims whatsoever in the Photographs/Video Recordings and I assign any rights I may have in and to them to RTMN. If I should receive any copies of the Photographs/Video Recordings, I will not authorize their use by anyone else.
4. I understand that RTMN is relying on my consent and agreements in this Release and therefore acknowledge that my consents and agreements are irrevocable. RTMN is not required to obtain any further approval from me. My consents and agreements in this Release do not in any way conflict with any existing commitment on my part.
5. This Release is legally binding on me, my legal representatives, heirs and assigns. I do not have the right to bring any claims or lawsuits against RTMN relating to the Photographs/Video Recordings, including but not limited to claims for libel, invasion of privacy, or right of publicity.
6. I understand that this Release does not obligate RTMN to use the Photographs/Video Recordings in any manner.
7. I have read this document and understand its contents. I acknowledge that I am not entitled to any further compensation in connection with this Release or the Photographs/Video Recordings.
